I am honored to seek re-election to the Yucaipa City Council, and I humbly ask for your continued support. In these challenging times, steadfast leadership and practical solutions are critically important. My experience as your Councilman and Mayor has equipped me to navigate financial and societal challenges with prudence and foresight.

As your Mayor, I have:

- Prioritized public safety.
- Reduced homelessness and related crime.
- Opened lines of communication by creating the Walk with the Mayor series, explaining the "why," and adopting the Yucaipa Sunshine Ordinance, making our city government more transparent than ever.

I am committed to finding innovative ways to balance our budget and believe a safe Yucaipa will attract those businesses which will generate revenue through business and capitalism.

I have upheld our traditional values while embracing progress that benefits all residents. Whether advocating for public safety enhancements, supporting local businesses, or preserving our community's character, I have always placed the interests of Yucaipa first.

We need experienced leadership to guide us through these uncertain times. With your vote, I pledge to continue serving Yucaipa with integrity, dedication, and a commitment to common sense solutions. Let's ensure a prosperous future for our beloved city.

Thank you for your trusted support.

I have 30 years’ experience in municipal government, public policy, housing, water, public affairs, and team building.

Like many, I moved to Yucaipa for its safe, walkable downtown, easy freeway access and rural feel. I am running to represent an area I love: a vital part of the community, where young families and retirees can still find affordable, safe places to live.

We must keep Yucaipa’s rural charm, limit higher density housing closer to the freeway, fully fund public safety, and make sure our mobile home parks have stable rents and safe conditions.

Yucaipa needs leaders with passion, knowledge, experience, and skills to collaborate successfully with people on the local, regional, and state levels to accomplish that. And District Three needs a leader who understands budgets, general plans, transit overlays and taxing methods, is willing to listen to residents’ concerns, and work to find solutions. I am that candidate.

Lastly, leadership takes a willingness to sacrifice for the good of the community. With a $7.3 million deficit, Yucaipa needs to tighten its belt in every way possible. I will decline my stipend as a council member; It won’t end the deficit, but we must start somewhere.
